Abigail Spanberger Raises More Than $338,000 in the First Three Months of 2018

GLEN ALLEN, VA – Today, Abigail Spanberger, Democratic candidate in Virginia's 7th Congressional District, announced that she raised more than $338,000 in the first quarter of 2018. Spanberger's strong 2018 fundraising numbers reflect her growing in-district and national support. More than 50% of Spanberger's contributors live in the 7th District, and more than 75% are Virginians, with most residing in Central Virginia. To date, nearly two thirds of all contributions to Spanberger's campaign are $50 or less.

"I am proud and humbled by the incredible support we received during these first three months of 2018," said Spanberger. "We have worked hard to build a campaign fueled by 7th District voters and grassroots supporters from across the Commonwealth and the country. When I launched this campaign nine months ago, few people believed this race was winnable. Now, not only do people believe it's winnable, but they are putting their time, energy, and money behind our efforts. It's incredible to see the excitement surrounding our campaign, and I am grateful to everyone who is supporting us and committed to bringing new leadership to the 7th."

Spanberger enters the second quarter of 2018 with more than $475,000 cash on hand and numerous national and local endorsements. Last week, End Citizens United backed her campaign, and in March, she gained the support of the three first-term Democratic Virginia Delegates whose legislative districts overlap with the 7th Congressional District. Additionally, Spanberger was selected for the NewDemPAC 'Candidate Watch List' and recognized as a 'Gun Sense Candidate' by Moms Demand Action. Earlier in the year, EMILY's List, the nation's largest resource for women in politics, endorsed Spanberger.

Abigail Spanberger is a proud Democrat and former CIA officer running for Congress against Dave Brat in Virginia's 7th Congressional District. She believes in leadership that flows from our shared American values of integrity, responsibility, and decency, and she wants to work to move this country forward together.
