End Citizens United Endorses Abigail Spanberger for VA-07

GLEN ALLEN, VA — Today, Abigail Spanberger, former CIA operations officer and Democratic candidate for Virginia's 7th Congressional District, received the endorsement of End Citizens United (ECU), a grassroots organization dedicated to reforming our campaign finance system and standing against Citizens United. Spanberger has made campaign finance reform a key component of her campaign, and her dedication to this issue is reflected in her decision to not accept any corporate PAC donations.

"Campaign Finance Reform is essential to putting the American people at the center of our nation's political discussions and decisions, and it's necessary to ensure transparency in electoral fundraising," said Spanberger. "We need members of Congress who are committed to campaign finance reform, and that commitment needs to start during their candidacy. I'm honored to have earned the endorsement of End Citizens United, an organization committed to achieving long-term reforms, and I look forward to working with them to fulfill a common goal of bringing fairness and transparency to our electoral system."

"In Washington, mega-donors dominate the conversation and have a tight grip over too many politicians. It's corrupting the system and leaving Virginia families behind," said ECU President Tiffany Muller. "Abigail Spanberger is committed to reforming the rigged system by curbing the influence of Big Money special interests in politics. We're proud to endorse Abigail and look forward to helping her win in November."

ECU's endorsement joins a growing list of local elected officials, community leaders, and progressive organizations backing Spanberger's bid for the Democratic nomination in Virginia's 7th Congressional District. In February, Spanberger was endorsed by EMILY's List, the nation's largest resource for women in politics. Just last month, she gained the support of the three first-term Democratic Virginia Delegates whose legislative districts overlap with the 7th Congressional District. Additionally, Spanberger was selected for the NewDemPAC 'Candidate Watch List' and recognized as a 'Gun Sense Candidate' by Moms Demand Action.
