Foreign Policy for America Endorses Abigail Spanberger in VA07

HENRICO, VA — Today, Abigail Spanberger, Democratic candidate for Congress in Virginia's 7th District, received the endorsement of Foreign Policy for America, a nonpartisan advocacy organization committed to defending diplomacy and standing up for principled American engagement in the world.

"Abigail Spanberger is exactly the kind of leader we need in Congress," said Andrew Albertson, Executive Director of Foreign Policy for America, "As a CIA officer, she gained a clear-eyed understanding of the national security challenges we face and worked tirelessly to serve and protect Americans around the world. If elected, Abigail will bring the kind of moral clarity and courage that Congress seems to be missing these days. That's why we're so proud to stand with her in her run for Congress."

"It is an honor to be endorsed by Foreign Policy for America," Spanberger said. "As a former CIA officer who served abroad, I know first-hand how effective diplomacy can secure peace, avert war, and save countless lives. I believe that substantive dialogue and continued engagement are essential to re-establishing our leadership role in the world, and I look forward to working with Foreign Policy for America to promote common-sense approaches to our international relations."

The Spanberger campaign has received several high-profile endorsements recently, including the AFL-CIO, EMILY's List, End Citizens United, Governor Ralph Northam and Richmond Mayor Levar Stoney. She will face Republican Congressman Dave Brat in November.

*Abigail Spanberger is a former CIA officer and the Democratic nominee running for Congress against Dave Brat in Virginia's 7th Congressional District. She believes in leadership that flows from our shared American values of integrity, responsibility, and decency, and she wants to work to move this country forward together.
