National Committee for an Effective Congress Endorses Abigail Spanberger for Congress

RICHMOND, VA — Today, the National Committee for an Effective Congress (NCEC) endorsed Abigail Spanberger's campaign in Virginia's 7th Congressional District. Since their founding in 1948, the NCEC has been providing valuable support and resources to Democratic congressional candidates across the nation.

"NCEC is proud to announce our endorsement of Abigail Spanberger," said NCEC President Eric Hawkins. "Ms. Spanberger's grassroots campaign is not only principled and policy-focused but also represents the very best chance Democrats have ever had to flip the 7th District. We at NCEC remain dedicated to supporting bold, inspiring Democrats, and Abigail Spanberger fits the bill."

"I sincerely appreciate NCEC's support," said Spanberger. "For 70 years, this organization has partnered with top-tier candidates to ensure progressive victories all across the country, and I am honored to work with them to make sure that we defeat my opponent in November and finally provide the people of the 7th district with the kind of leadership they deserve and demand."

NCEC's endorsement follows Spanberger's impressive victory in the Democratic Primary and a host of recent endorsements including EMILY's List, End Citizens United, NARAL Pro-Choice America, Senator Kirsten Gillibrand's Off the Sidelines, and numerous elected leaders, including Virginia Delegates Dawn Adams, Debra Rodman, and Schuyler VanValkenburg, as well as Richmond Mayor Levar Stoney. She will face Republican Congressman Dave Brat in November.

Abigail Spanberger is a proud Democrat and former CIA officer running for Congress against Dave Brat in Virginia's 7th Congressional District. She believes in leadership that flows from our shared American values of integrity, responsibility, and decency, and she wants to work to move this country forward together.
