The National Women's Political Caucus Endorses Abigail Spanberger for VA07

RICHMOND, VA — Today, the National Women's Political Caucus (NWPC) announced their endorsement of Abigail Spanberger for Virginia's 7th Congressional District. The NWPC is a multi-partisan grassroots organization dedicated to increasing women's participation in the political process.

"The National Women's Political Caucus is thrilled by Abigail's candidacy and we are proud to endorse her campaign," said NWPC President Donna Lent. "At a time when the anti-woman agenda seems to be gaining momentum and we see elected leaders chipping away at so many hard-fought victories, it is inspiring to see candidates like Abigail stand up and push back. We are proud to offer our support, encouragement, and assistance in her effort to flip the 7th."

"The NWPC does important work on behalf of women running for public office across the country, and I am honored to have earned their endorsement," Spanberger said. "This organization makes it possible for more women to launch successful campaigns at all levels of government. I look forward to working with the NWPC to share that empowering message of inclusivity with the voters of the 7th District."

The endorsement from the NWPC joins a growing list of organizations and individuals supporting Spanberger's candidacy, including EMILY's List, End Citizens United, NARAL Pro-Choice America, Senator Kirsten Gillibrand's Off the Sidelines, and numerous elected leaders, including Governor Ralph Northam, Virginia Delegates Dawn Adams, Debra Rodman, and Schuyler VanValkenburg, as well as Richmond Mayor Levar Stoney. She will face Republican Congressman Dave Brat in November.

Abigail Spanberger, a former CIA officer, is the Democratic nominee running for Congress against Dave Brat in Virginia's 7th Congressional District. She believes in leadership that flows from our shared American values of integrity, responsibility, and decency, and she wants to work to move this country forward together.
